DEC 23 AT SEA | RICHES OF THE SOUTHERN OCEAN

As you sail east toward the Falkland Islands, A&K's Expedition Team begins its exciting lecture series, covering everything from penguins to the formation of sea ice to thrilling personal accounts of living in Antarctica. Photography enthusiasts of all ages enjoy time with A&K's Resident Photo Coach, on hand to share tips and answer questions. Young guests — even teens, who may enjoy their own teens-only group — are invited to join Young Explorers Guides for onboard adventures ranging from a scavenger hunt to nautical knot-tying with a former British Royal Marine Commando. The cool waters in these parts are rich in krill, making them a favorite with local wildlife searching for food. Alongside your naturalist guides, spot various species of whales and seabirds from 'Le Lyrial's' deck.

DEC 25–26 THE SOUTH ATLANTIC | HOLIDAY AT SEA

Experience a Christmas Day like no other as you find yourself at sea heading toward one of the most beautiful places on earth. As you approach South Georgia, deckside sightings of whales and other wildlife become more frequent. Time spent cruising is once again filled with fascinating lectures by your Expedition Team as well as exciting family-friendly programming led by Young Explorers Guides. The open ocean is a treasure chest bursting with life; scan it for marine mammals and seabirds as the ship cruises in nutrient-rich waters and along islands that may include Shag Rocks.

DEC 27–29 SOUTH GEORGIA | WILDLIFE HAVEN

Explore South Georgia, the Southern Ocean's crown jewel of wildlife. South Georgia is a nearly submerged continuation of the Andes Mountains, and your days here are spent exploring its glacier-carved coves and rugged shores — ideal for exploring with your naturalist guides on Zodiacs (sturdy inflatable boats). Weather and ice conditions permitting, excursions over the next three days include stops along the northeast coastline of the island, where you may have the chance to visit vast colonies of king penguins and southern elephant seals. You may also explore iconic historic sites with your A&K historian, who shares tales of the whaling era and the heroic age of exploration. You also learn about the life and exploits of Antarctica's greatest explorer, Sir Ernest Shackleton, whose final resting place is right here on South Georgia Island, at Grytviken.

'Le Lyrial' | Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

DEC 30–31 SCOTIA SEA | LIFE ON THE SOUTHERN OCEAN

Cruise the Scotia Sea while your expert lecturers recap your adventures in South Georgia and hint at what's to come. Young Explorers Guides arrange for engaging activities that include dissecting loligo squids, creating Japanese fish prints and a special visit to the ship's high-tech bridge to see how 'Le Lyrial' is controlled. As the end of the year approaches, celebrate with onboard festivities and the anticipation of Antarctica.

'Le Lyrial' | Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

JAN 1–3 ANTARCTICA | INCREDIBLE WHITE CONTINENT

Begin an unforgettable New Year with incredible landings on the Antarctic Peninsula and a number of South Shetland Islands. Weather and ice conditions permitting, your Expedition Team takes advantage of the best opportunities to set out on Zodiacs and explore the continent's iconic shores, which teem with gentoo, Adélie and chinstrap penguins. Meanwhile, a parent-free Zodiac ride beckons younger guests, who receive a lesson from their naturalist guide on how to drive the nimble boats while cruising past ice floes, whales and napping leopard seals. Antarctica's stunning geography enhances the excitement of your experience here as dramatic snow-capped mountains, shimmering glaciers and iceberg-strewn channels compete for your attention.

'Le Lyrial' | Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

JAN 4–5 DRAKE PASSAGE | REFLECTIONS AT SEA

Bid farewell to Antarctica as 'Le Lyrial' points north toward Ushuaia. Enjoy time with the new friends you've made and observe more marine life from the decks with your naturalist experts, while younger explorers participate in family-friendly activities with their dedicated guides.

'Le Lyrial' | Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

JAN 6 DEPART USHUAIA

After breakfast, disembark 'Le Lyrial.' Transfer to the airport for your return flight to Buenos Aires, where you board your flight home.
